FROM TEXAS.

An Occasional Correspondent Writes an Interesting Letter.

PARIS, TEXAS, MAY 19, 1901.

Thinking that a few dots from this section might be of interest to many of the readers of The News, I will send what I think would be of general interest.

Federal court adjourned at this place the first of the month. In the Hotema case the jury found the defendant not guilty as charged in the indictment because he was insane. Seventeen full blood Cherokees on trial for murder, were acquitted. Following this trial Judge Hotema was placed on trial on another charge of witch killing, and a verdict similar to the above was rendered. I had a lengthy chat with the Judge during the last trial and found him to be a very pleasant gentleman. He conversed intelligently on every subject except witchcraft. He is well on that line and declared that the Bible would bear him out in the assertion that Witches always die and do exist. He said that Christ and the disciples had power to cast out devils (Witches) but now the person possessed in such a manner must be killed as there is no known method of expelling the Witches.

There were two hundred and twenty five old criminal cases ordered struck from the docket by Judge Bryant. These cases were from the Territory and were thrown out because this court no longer has jurisdiction over that country.

An amusing incident occurred during the Hotema trial which convulsed even the court with laughter. An Indian brought into court—through the window—some English—well, not do so because he knows there is an interpreter employed, and he had rather speak Cherokeean way. An Indian Judge of some note was placed on the witness stand. He had imbibed rather freely of the water and didn't care whether school kept or not, therefore he refused to "talk." Judge Bryant knew he could "talk" English.

At the door the Indian turned and said: "Judge me talk now." "You go to jail was the reply. After having spent some time behind the bars his red skin honor was brought back and placed on the stand again. This time he was very familiar with the Queen's English and told his story. On leaving the stand he said turning to the bench: "Me Judge too, heap big; me catch Judge Bryant in Nation me make him talk Cherokeean, and if him to talk, me send him 'jail' 'til him learn Cherokeean." With these words he bowed and withdrew in a very stately manner, and a roar of laughter.

District court convened here on the first Monday in April, with Judge Ben H. Denton, an Albany, Ky. boy, on bench, and is still in session. Over two hundred divorces have been granted this term. Court will probably adjourn before some time in June as there are several big murder cases yet to be tried.

Most of Lamar county's officers and influential citizens are Kentuckians, coming from Adair, Clinton, Cumberland, Barren and Warren counties. Cumberland county is in the majority.

We think old Cumberland is hard to beat and it is too.

Mr. Will K. Long, who came here from Columbia at the close of the civil war, accompanied by his brother, Judge A. B. Long, will visit Columbia and other points in Ky., in June and July. These gentlemen are among the most influential citizens of this county and county, and I am sure, be received with much joy by their friends in the dear old State.

Paris is to have a street fair and carnival beginning the 21st inst and continuing four days. It is being well advertised and will bring people from all parts of this State, I. T., and Arkansas. Paris now has a Democratic Mayor for the first time in four years and it is hoped that the new Mayor will solve the water problem so thoroughly that factories and Railroad shops will come and stay.

Quite a number of Paris people went to San Antonio and El Paso, last week to a display of President McKinley and party. They report big blow out at both places.

Farmers are much distressed about the late season. It is a total failure. Fields that were promising two weeks ago are barren. Farmers are planting the ruined fields in corn and late corn. An old settler told me yesterday that during his fifty years residence here he had never witnessed a failure in oats before. The pest is a small green bug which works at the stool of the plant, sucking it to death. Some have tried sprays but no visible benefit resulted.

The corn crop is later than it has been for twenty years but looks well considering the dry weather, there having been no rain of any consequence for about four weeks.

The cotton crop is also late and in many places it is coming up slow, resulting in bad stands. In ground that was left before the April floods and afterward, there is good stands, but in ground that was not plowed until after the floods there is no possibility of a stand until there is a season. This will necessarily make the crop late and the usual summer drought will cut it very short.

The alfalfa crop is the finest in this county since the plant was introduced. It is yielding from one and a half to two tons per acre, first cutting. The July cutting will, no doubt, be better than the first.

Very little wheat was sown in North Texas last fall. The farmers claim they can plant two acres of cotton and with the proceeds of its sale buy more than enough flour to supply them for a year. This is about correct should the present prices continue. If the price of cotton should drop to six cents about four acres would supply them in flour so why should the North Texas farmer raise wheat any way?

The Kiowa, Comanche, Apache and Wichita Indian reservations will be opened for settlement about August 1st. There will be about one million six hundred thousand acres in the Kiowa Comanche and Apache reservations and 450,000 acres in the Wichita reservation to be opened for white settlers. It is reported here that the Indians have released their right to their pasture reserve for a consideration of $25 per acre to be paid by settlers. If the report is true this will open 480,000 acres more for settlement, making room for 3000 families.

People make a great mistake in joining a rush to the opening of a reservation. It takes time and a pocket full of money to accomplish anything after there. These desires of obtaining land in the new country should wait until after the rush. Many of those who stake claims will be glad to sell for from $100 to $200 within six months after the opening. Then is the time to go. The claims will have some improvements and conveniences and one would be better prepared to take up life in the new country. Those possessing good homes are foolish in even thinking of going to a new country. They do not contemplate the hardships and privations attendant upon life in a new territory where there is nothing but wire, grass and muddy water.

Fraternally,

J. McScott.

TRIBUTE OF RESPECT.

Gradyville, Ky., May, 6.—On May 5th, God, in his infinite wisdom, saw fit to call from his earthly labors, to that Celestial Lodge above, our dearly beloved brother, Pyrrhus Nelson.

We realize that the members of Gradyville Lodge, No. 251 F. & A. M., of which Bro. Nelson was a consistent member, have lost an honored and beloved brother, one who has been as a father and a light to many of us. We deplore his death more than we can express.

We further realize that he will be missed by others than the craft. His bereaved relatives, the church and community at large will ever cherish his memory dear.

We recommend that this tribute to the memory of our brother be spread upon the minutes of our Lodge; also be published in our county papers, and a copy sent to the family of the deceased.

In the Livingston Circuit Court, Luther Hennock was awarded judgment for $5,000 against the Illinois Central railroad company for the loss of an automobile. His father was, and his judgment for $500 for the loss of his own services.

George Reeves Killed.

One of the notorious Reeves brothers who planned and executed the famous Tompkinsville robbery in 1887, was shot through the heart while attempting to escape from Indiana officers last Saturday night. The following account of the affair is taken from the Courier Journal of Sunday:

Jasper, Ind., May 11.—In a desperate encounter with a Deputy Sheriff, George Reeves was shot to death tonight near Huntington while being taken from Jeffersonville reformatory to Jasper, where he and his brother John were to be placed on trial for a murder committed nearly twenty years ago.

Sheriff Castrop arrived in Huntington with the prisoners in custody at 8 o'clock this evening. In company with Deputy Sheriffs George Castrop and John T. Hutter the prisoners were started in a carriage to Jasper.

Up to the time the carriage reached a point three miles from Huntington neither of the prisoners gave the officers any trouble.

During the time required in covering this distance, however, the men had quietly worked the handcuffs from their wrists, and, as the carriage started across a high bridge over the Patoka river both men sprang to their feet and leaped from the carriage.

John Reeves was quickly overtaken, bound hand and foot again placed in the cage. Deputy Sheriff Hutter followed pursuit of George Reeves. He fired twice from a rifle at the fleeing prisoner without effect, then finally making an attempt to climb a steep embankment to get into dense woods. Here Deputy Sheriff overtook him and a hand-to-hand encounter ensued.

Reeves using his handcuffs, which were still fastened to his wrists, in an endeavor to dash the Sheriff's brains out. Hutter, feeling that Reeves was about to get the upper hand, made a final struggle and succeeded in throwing off the adversary's hold so that he could reach for the revolver he carried in a rear pocket. Grasping the weapon he leveled it full at Reeves' breast and pulled the trigger.

The prisoner released his hold and fell back on the deputy's body with a bullet through his heart.

Why He Never Married.

"Mr. Buchanan, who was the first bachelor elected to the Presidency, and had deliberately given himself to a life of celibacy," writes William Perline in the May Ladies' Home Journal.

"In the days when he was a young lawyer of Lancaster Pennsylvania, had loved Miss Coleman, a beautiful daughter of a citizen of that town. They had been engaged to be married when one day he was surprised to receive from her a request to release her from the promise.

According to Mr. George Ticknor Curtis, the separation originated in a misunderstanding on the part of the lady, who was usually sensitive, over a small matter exaggerated by giddy and indolent tongues.

Some time after the arrangement he was sent to Philadelphia and there died suddenly. Throughout the rest of his life, or nearly a half century, Mr. Buchanan was not known to have revealed to anybody the circumstances of this romantic tragedy. He would only say that it had only changed his hopes and plans, and had led him more deeply into politics as distraction from his grief.

In his old age, long after he had retired permanently to private life, he called attention to the package containing, he said, the papers and relics which would explain the causes of his youthful sorrow, and which he preserved evidently with the idea of revealing them before his death.

But when he died and his will was read, it was found that he had directed that the package should be burned without being opened, and his injunction was obeyed."

Wm. L. Boyce, of Sharpsburg, a student in the Kentucky College of Medicine, Louisville, was stabbed to death by a man, Jan. 1st. John Withers, on the steps of the hospital connected with the College Friday afternoon.

We are authorized to announce P. T. COOLEY as a candidate for the office of County Clerk of Adair County, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

Big street car strike at Albany, New York, last week terminated in the killing of quite a number of the strikers.

Mrs. McKinley, who was dangerously ill last week, is much improved and it is now believed that she will regain her usual health.

The Somerset Journal is to be greatly improved in size and appearance. Editor Cabell has induced Mr. W. P. Walton, formerly editor of the Interior Journal, to become interested, and the facilities for printing will be materially enhanced. Mr. Cabell will have full control, and as a newspaper writer he ranks among the best.

Attention is called to the announcement in this issue of Mr. G. B. Fees, of the Green River section, for the Democratic nomination for sheriff of this county. Mr. Fees is well qualified to fill this important position, an unwavering Democrat, and should the party give him the nomination he will use all honorable means to win in the contest at the polls.

The Bank at Mumfordsville was looted last Wednesday night and three thousand dollars in money and some valuable papers stolen. The burglars were evidently professionals. They entered the bank, stopped all the cracks in the safe with soap then blew it open with nitro glycerine. The charge was so heavy that the walls of the building were cracked. Depositors will not lose any thing; the bank has resumed business. Another evidence that burglar-proof safes should be used in all banks. They cost lots of money, but they are the only guarantee against skilled craftsmen.

In this issue appears the announcement of Mr. T. F. Gowen, of Gradyville, for the Democratic nomination for County Judge. Mr. Gowen is at present magistrate in his district and has all along performed the important duties of his office with courage and fidelity, and should he be elected to the position he aspires to would pursue a similar fair and impartial course. He is a Democrat and cheerfully pledges his support to the ticket as will be made by the Democrats of the county.

ADDITIONAL LOCALS.

Circuit Court.

The May term of the Adair Circuit Court opened last Monday with a small crowd. Citizens were here from all sections of the county, but the crowd was not as large as is usually seen on the first day of circuit court.

The court-house bell tapped at 9 o'clock and by noon the grand jury was instructed and at work. It is said the instructions were the most rigid ever given by Judge Jones.

The following gentlemen comprise the grand jury: Wm. Francis, J. N. Coffey, H. B. Ingram, Curt Yarberry, I. O. Harmon, T. M. Moss, T. J. Bunn, Garner, Duke Grider, W. R. Williams, G. L. Wolford, Mont Montgomery, Wm. Harvey, foreman.

Mr. Ed. Dohoney and Miss Sallie Squires, of Green county, were married at the bride's home last Thursday. Rev. S. T. Nicholas officiating. Quite a number of the friends of the young couple were present and witnessed the solemn and impressive ceremony. We trust that this union will not only bring happy contentment, but prosperity in all their undertakings.

Mrs. Rosa Dixon, who lives a few miles from Columbia, is a remarkable woman for her age. She is in her eighty-seventh year, does her own cooking and looks after the household affairs generally. She is now in perfect health and does not use glasses for ordinary work. She is very much interested in what is going on in the country, and likes for her children who are living in distant States to keep in touch with the times here, hence she gave an order for two copies of the News last week.

We are authorized to announce that a fair will be held in this town some time in August and to notify the people of this section to shape up their stock for exhibition, for good premiums will be hung up. Also the ladies should arrange home-made articles for premiums, from the tiny pickle to the full grown pumpkin and from the most delicate embroidery to a counterpane. Make arrangements to have something worthy to show, for the fair is certain to be a go.

The instruments that belonged to the Columbia Band have been sold to a company of colored boys. The report that they will employ a teacher at once and will be ready to make good music in a few weeks. The instruments are comparatively new and were sold much under their cost.

Mrs. W. L. Farris, who was one of the best known women in the Caney Valley county, died Wednesday morning, the 15th inst. She was about eighty years old and was a lady highly respected for her Christian character. She was a kind and sympathetic neighbor, ever ready to help those who needed her assistance. No death ever occurred about Caney Valley that brought more genuine sorrow, every body expressing the deepest sympathy for the husband, who has now reached his eighty-second year, and, seemingly, where he is mostly in need of a companion he is bereft by the dispensation of Him who moves in a mysterious way. May he look to the giver of all that is good for consolation in this hour of his sore affliction. To a person who has grown old from life to the grave seems but a step, hence the importance of preparing for death while in health. The deceased had been a devoted follower of her Saviour for many years, therefore, was ready when the summons came.

The M. & F. High School closed last Wednesday with the highest average daily attendance for several years. Prof. A. H. Ballard and wife have labored constantly for the school and the results of their efforts are gratifying to the patrons and friends of the institution. We have not heard a single complaint that many are outspoken in praise of their worth as instructors and regret that we are not assured of their further continuance with the school. In this connection we also desire to say that Rev. T. F. Walton, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, has been for the past five months, teaching several classes in the higher branches, giving perfect satisfaction. The principal for the next term is expected to return in a few days and begin active work for the session commencing in September.

Last Friday and Saturday the teachers who will be applicants for common schools in Adair county, were in Columbia. A finer body of young people is not often seen together. The young men were carefully dressed, wearing intelligent expressions, courteous in bearing—a citizenship that is an honor to Adair county. The young ladies were in advance of the young men when attractiveness is taken into consideration, were not behind them in intelligence, a statement that the male teachers readily admit. Adair county is proud of her teachers, believing that they will compare favorably with those of any county in the State. Instructing the young is an honorable calling, and those who have adopted teaching as a profession should feel proud of their avocation.

The closing of the M. & F. High School and a select class taught by Miss Fannie Garrett were properly celebrated in picnicking at the fair grounds last Thursday. The instructors, including Rev. T. F. Walton, who taught the best language ever all there together with their schools, legends and many other things. The small children enjoyed romping in all ways, unrestrained, while the older ones indulged in hand-shaking and social chat. The dinner was as good as any community can get up and simple to eat, many more than were present. Mr. W. S. Barker had the entire crowd gathered and a kodak picture will be made.

The instruments that belonged to the Columbia Band have been sold to a company of colored boys. The report that they will employ a teacher at once and will be ready to make good music in a few weeks. The instruments are comparatively new and were sold much under their cost.

Mr. G. W. Hays, of Russell county, was in our office Monday and informed us that the rains of Saturday and Sunday did not reach his section.

Mr. Jo Cantrell, who is Town Marshal of Greenburg, was seriously stabbed one day last week by a young man named Mott. We do not know the cause of the trouble. The Marshal will recover.

ASLEEP IN THE ARMS OF JESUS.
Sunday morning, May 6, at 11 o'clock, the grim reaper, Death, entered the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Eastham, and claimed as its own the spirit of one of their brightest jewels, their daughter, Victoria. For five months she had cheerfully and patiently yielded to the grasp of that fatal disease, consumption. She was in her 21st year; professed a hope in her Savior December, 1890, and lived an every day Christian until her death. She was ever ready to speak a kind word to every one. Her sister, Mrs. Leora Taylor, preceded her to the grave three years ago. A dark day will come to every home, but it should be a trouble to this family in their hours of bereavement, to give up Him who doeth all things well, and who guardeth his loved ones against every thing that would mar their happiness. While she was cared for by earthly parents, but what is that compared with the care of a heavenly parent. She is now around the great white throne of God, resting on a bed of roses, and waiting for the sweet angel that bore her across silvery waters and nestled her in the arms of her Savior. While we believe her name is written in the Lamb's Book of Life, we feel that we should not mourn her departure, but rather rejoice. Were the power given her she would look down on the grief stricken family and say "weep not for me, but live for God and his cause so you can meet me in the sweet by-and-by where there are no more parting." While we can not understand the dealings of Providence—the most precious ones are taken in the bloom of youth and our hopes shattered, yet all things work together for those who love the Lord. By this death gloom hovers over the home, but Victoria is far better off in a home of perpetual joy.
The funeral was preached by Rev. Wm. Smith and the interment in the McBeath graveyard.
Victoria is no more with us. But in a mansion pure and bright. She is not dead, but asleep In a home of pure delight.

Irvin's Store, Ky.
A. Patterson, of Mercer county, had four brood mares to produce six mule colts, two pairs of twins. One pair of the twins were well formed mule mares and are living and thriving; the other pair died. It is nothing unusual for twin mules to be born, but it is a very extraordinary thing for them to live any length of time. Mr. Patterson says he never saw a case before and especially where the twins were males.

It is now time for the stockmen to advertise their stock. In our judgment the newspaper that reaches the people is the very best medium. Bills do little towards advertising, as they are rarely ever seen but a few miles from home; their purpose is the main to test forth terms. The News, read by 5,000 people every week, is ready to tell the story. If you have good stock, worthy and desirable advertise in this paper.
W. F. Jeffries & Son have a new "ad" this week. Read their invitation to the trade.

LINE TO AUNT NANCY.

She is growing old and feeble,
And her locks are tinged with snow,
Yet she recalls with ardent pleasure
Those sunny days of long ago.
In her chair she is reclining,
I can see her rocking to and fro,
Me thinks I can hear her thinking,
For she often talks of little Joe.
She has always loved him
Since his kind good mother died,
For this grandmother always soothes him.
Whose sympathy on others relied.
Now his childhood days are over.
He leaves this kind old grandma's side
He must launch his boat on foreign waters,
As other noble men have tried.
True to his country—a warrior was he,
Though young in years enlisted in lines.
But his many braves went down at sea
Who fought in battles of Philippines.
Let us all extend our sympathy
To this kind old friend of ours,
Whose sorrow-joy so very many,
The ladder she is climbing, to Heaven's towers,
Now her step is slow and tottering,
Yet she climbs with silent joy,
Just beyond the deep dark river
She longs to clasp this warrior boy.
